WOULDBE SLASHER LANDS IN PRISON

Pedro Ruda, a Filipino of Lihue, wrote a letter to a woman at Waima threatening that if she did not return to Lihue by last Wednesday he would do her serious bodily injury. The woman turned the letter over to the police. On Wednesday Ruda appeared at Waima and was promptly taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff W. O. Crowell. When searched the man was found to be armed with a butcher's knife and a dagger, the latter being an ugly weapon fashioned from a strip of steel with a file.

In the court Ruda was found guilty on two counts, the first being a charge of carrying deadly weapons, for which he was sentenced to imprisonment for six months, and the second, threatening. In the latter case he was sentenced to file a bond forthwith in the sum of $1,000 to keep the peace for one year, in lieu of which he is to spend the time in jail—which he probably will do.

The man and woman were friends in Lihue and the trouble came as a result of the visit of the latter to Waima against the will of the former. Now that Romeo is in jail, however, Juliette will probably stay at Waima as long as she wishes.

HAWAIIANS HONOR NOH. WM. H. RICE

A very delightful surprise awaited Hon. W. H. Rice last Friday when a large delegation from various Kauai Sunday Schools waited upon their president at his residence in Lihue and made presentation of a very beautiful kou calabash with ornate gold inscription plate, in commemoration of the recipient's seventieth birthday.

Owing to delay in transit the gift arrived here several days late, but nevertheless the original program was carried out in detail.

Several impressive Hawaiian songs were sung, among which was one especially dedicated to Mr. Rice, in honor of the occasion. In the presentation speech the long years of untiring effort on the part of the president of the Hawaiian Sunday Schools were spoken of in the highest terms. Some thirty people came from various parts of the island to take part in this event.

The gift is an unusually handsome specimen of this particular branch of Hawaiian art.

Another Wedding

The wedding of K. C. Ahana, clerk to the county clerk, Lihue, and Miss Dora Peiler, formerly of Hanamaulu school, will take place at the residence of the bride's parents at Waialua, Oahu, on Monday, August 14. Mr. and Mrs. Ahana will spend a few days in Honolulu before returning to Kauai.

Body To Honolulu

Jacob Ordenstein, Honolulu undertaker, returned to the city in the Kinau Saturday night with the embalmed body of Joaquin Silva Cabral, the wharf worker who was drowned in the surf at Waima. The undertaker was sent over by the San Antonio Society, of which Cabral was a member.

There will be a band concert in Lihue park at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

REMEMBER THEIR BELOVED FRIEND

Wednesday last, July 26, being the birthday of Mrs. Wm. Hyde Rice, was the occasion of a very pleasant testimonial of appreciation on the part of the Hui Aloha of Kauai. This society was inaugurated, years ago, by Mrs. Rice for the benefit of the Hawaiian women and their homes, and, beginning with Lihue, its usefulness has spread to the various parts of the island.

On this occasion delegates came from the different parts of the island to the number of some 30, and, bearing flowers and a memorial of greetings and good will, proceeded in a body to the home of Mrs. Rice, to deliver them in person, together with individual felicitations and good wishes. Most graceful among these felicitations was a special hymn composed for the occasion by Mrs. H. L. Sheldon, of Kapaa, and sung by her with fine effect.

Mrs. Rice was naturally very much touched by these evidences of devotion and appreciation, and responded in words of grateful feeling and regard.

The happy event came to a close in a festival of ice cream and cake all round, and a general feeling of joyous satisfaction.

The day was further signalized by many beautiful and valuable gifts from a host of friends and relatives, together with many messages and cablegrams of felicitation and goodwill.

Mountain House Party

Mrs. Jordan, sister of Mrs. Francis Gay, and a party of friends completed a stay of two weeks on Saturday at Koholamano, the Gay mountain house, and returned via the Kinau to Honolulu. ## Lands To Be Opened

THE BROWN CASE NEXT WEDNESDAY

On account of the failure of E. A. Knudsen, of Kauai, and W. H. Smith, of Hawaii, to arrive there was not a quorum of the commissioners of education in Honolulu yesterday for the special meeting called by Superintendent Kinney to review the Brown case. As a quorum was necessary to make any business legal, wireless requests were sent out by the Superintendent yesterday to Messrs. Knudsen and Smith to be present on Wednesday, when the Brown matter will be threshed out.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are now equipped with the services of an attorney, Fred Patterson, of Lihue, having gone down from Kauai a few nights ago to take up their fight for them.

Games At Makaweli

The opening games of baseball of the third battalion, National Guard, set for Makaweli Sunday afternoon resulted in only one contest, Company K defaulting to Company M. ## LIHUE MAY BUY MAKEE CONTROL

Negotiations have been under way for some time between representatives of the Lihue Plantation Co., Ltd., and Col. Z. S. Spalding for the purchase by the former of a majority interest in the plantation property known as the Makee Sugar Company. It was reported in Honolulu last week that the deal was about to be closed, but the statement was premature. Vice President Rodeik, of Hackfeld & Company, spent the weekend on Kauai and during his visit the matter was further discussed.

It is understood that the deal is more promising now than ever before but nothing of an absolutely definite character has been settled.

The Makee Sugar Company is one of the oldest and most successful sugar properties in the Islands. Its taxation value is about a million and a quarter dollars. Just what figure is being considered in present negotiations has not been divulged.

For Nawiliwili Wharf

The Lord-Young Engineering Co. is casting twelve 35-foot concrete piles at Honolulu for the 40-foot extension to be built on Nawiliwili wharf. They will have to stand thirty days to "season" before they can be driven. There will be one new boat stage on the mauka side of the extension and two on the makai side. The derrick beam will be extended and the apparatus relocated on the extension so that it will be able to work on either side of the wharf. It is claimed that landing boats will ride much easier at the extension than alongside the present wharf.
